

60-SECOND SCRIPT

“FINAL STRETCH” ANNOUNCEMENT SCRIPT

VO: Seniors!

VO: Could you use money for college or career training?

VO: Be sure to fill out your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (also known as the FAFSA) before graduation.

VO: It's the only way to apply for the Michigan Achievement Scholarship,

VO which offers TUITION-FREE community college,

VO: up to twenty-seven thousand five hundred dollars at a public or private university

VO: or up to four thousand dollars for career training.

VO: Plus, it's the key to unlocking grants, work-study funds and loans —

VO: no matter your GPA or athletic achievements!

VO: The form takes most families just thirty minutes or less to complete and is only thirty-six questions long.

VO: Time is running out to submit yours before the end of the school year.

VO: If you miss out on the FAFSA, you could miss out on thousands for college or career training!

VO: Don't wait! You might qualify for more than you expect.

VO: Get started today at FAFSA dot gov or stop by the counselors' office with any questions.